My dear Mrs Gaurge.

We are getting out a very large issue of our extra paper this week & it is almost certain that we shall be so late getting back our type that we cannot have but 16 pages in our next instead of 20. If such is the case it will hardly be possible to use both chapters of the serial as each one is about a page. We do not wish to omit entirely, another week of course, & as the chapters are each full length & end in a way fitting for a close, I do not think it very serious matter to separate, though if we can get 20 pages as usual we will put in the two to oblige you, but if not do not see how we can.

Yours truly
H. S. Harrison
