Committee on Accounts,

House of Representatives,

Washington, D. C., Apr 30, 1890

My Dear Judge

Have had a talk with Ingalls and submitted
Bill and your remarks.
He says he will examine it carefully, and if he likes it will introduce same in Senate. He is not favorably impressed with Hour's bill. think he will introduce in Senate soon. Have read Petolus Prime 1/2 through, can't rest until it is finished, its influence will be as Uncle Tom's Cabin, if the pace is kept to the end, as it is in the beginning.
This Congress is going to pass a

FIFTY-FIRST CONGRESS.

HENRY J. SPOONER, Chairman.
M. M. Boothman, Walter L. Hayes,
Harrison Kelley, Thomas W. Grimes, Myron H. McGord, W. H. F. Lee, H. C. Hansbrough, James Kerr.

John S. Kellogg, Clerk.
