My Dear Judge :

The fact that I was out of the city when your letter of the 11th was received will serve as my apology for tardy acknowledgment.

I can not recall what I said to you about Pachtolus Prime, but here is the impression left upon my mind.

J

read very hastily and almost exclusively as I was in my carriage visiting my patients and am very sorry that I have not the opportunity to reread the book.

I pray sincerely that your health is improving - that you shall be able to continue to write. Your books will grow in popular favor and appreciation - and I want you to live to reap your reward in public sentiment and dollars.

Again = when I can be of any service to you. Enclosed are as you would Tom brother

As an Assistant
Fraternally, Yours
D. A. Cook

P.S. - If you think I can assist my physician - and you will give me
the benefit of your suggestions - I will try again
