My Dear Sir, -

Your letter of April 30th is just received. I wish to thank you for your prompt acceptance of the invitation, and to say that we shall be very much pleased to have you prepare the address, but hope that your health may be so restored that you may be present with us, to deliver it, without inconvenience or injury to yourself. We shall endeavor to give you a warm welcome when you come.

Very sincerely yours,

W. F. Day
