

Lewis, Moot & Lewis,
Attorneys & Counselors,
Buffalo, N. Y.

May 17, 1890.

My dear Judge:-

Yours of yesterday is at hand. I shall certainly try to spend a night with you soon if you are not able to come here. Do not try to do too much. Your handwriting betrays the fact that your health is not so good as is to be desired.

Remember that we cannot right the world in a day, and that no trouble is so bad as borrowed trouble.

Sincerely your friend,

To

Hon. A. W. Tourgee,

Mayville, N. Y.

Adelbert Moot