

Tuesday p.m. - Home coming

Dear Mr. Tuxford

I had very much to get done with on Sunday - but I remember that the book is identical with the second volume. It would be a great convenience if they would think right on all subjects. But I can see any time or which to found rights to a National Election Law.

When I was packing my trunk I put in that volume of mine in which there were a copy papers of had not time to look over. As, well I was looking them over to find a file, and I imagine my surprise to find in it. The reason of of Honor papers, - which had never been sent, the check and letter were all enclosed, - and for a moment I could not believe my eyes. The ender was directed, but the papers were not in it, - and when I went to get them in, - I remembered, - about it - it was too small, - and as you find they were prepared just before we left for Washington, - and I was going to get some larger envelopes, - but in the hurry of getting away, I suppose I forgot it, and having directed the envelope, and signed it the Check &c. I would have sworn I mailed it, I immediately sent it with a letter to Gen. Davis, explaining. I am awful sorry about it, & made such a blunder but you see I am getting old and forgetful. I thought you might be here by the time

He answered it, and told me to check for you time & enclose the letter he wrote to me & one dealing with the same. I had time all the forenoon, but couldn't get as much time as I expected with the doctor, we went down to the lunch, but the month was too sore to do anything so we came home. I finished all the forenoon and am going at it again now, as soon as I get my letter. I subscribe to the Press you correspond to this morning you may have seen the same but they come in and out and always it means nothing any more.

I am glad to hear it is so near home, and shall welcome the manuscript.

Dear Mother - are all kinds
You will come on Perry Lake Mohawk, won't you?
I can meet you in New York if you don't want to come there. I'd like to see you.
Love,
E.

Dear Mother - I found out where I could find the town-weights today - and tomorrow will get them and have sent to you.
