My Dear Sir:

Your letter of yesterday. Just rec'd gives me much delight.
I am glad that you
are well enough to be with us, and glad that you are to deliver the address.

I am sure you will make an occasion of
it. The subject is in that cannot fail to be entirely in the days

of divided sentiment
with respect of God
who cod.

The graduate American an at S P M. and we most respects you
to stay with him.

Very truly yours
L. S. Ray Parker
