

Judge Tourgis.

Dear Sir,

Your prompt kindness in sending me your much coveted and highly valued autograph with the extract from your address to the Montre Conference would have been as promptly acknowledged if I could have earlier learned your address.

The phase of the Master's life which you

"Love to think upon", is the one which I too, regard most reverently, and draw my best lessons from. My thought at the time was, that you had given expression to the only creed I had ever got possession of, that I should henceforth be satisfied with <sup>it</sup> in every relation of life; I therefore thank you most sincerely for the gift.

It may strengthen your faith in my sincerity, to know that yours is the first au-

To repeat, I have ever asked for outside the circle of my personal friends.

Reason plain, this reliance upon your valuable time, and belief in me being, to be most gratefully yours, Sarah B. French.
