LIPPINCOTT'S
MONTHLY MAGAZINE

Philadelphia, June 17, 189

Mrs. A. W. Tougee,
Mayville,
N. Y.

Dear Madam:-

Your favor of the 11th, inst is received and noted. We have, unfortunately a large number of stories either on hand or arranged for of the size of which you speak but if the Judge would be willing to allow us to examine it and keep it down to 10,000 words it is probable we could use it at a fair price. We must retain the privilege of examining our Magazine stories, not necessarily to criticize them, but to see whether they suit our uses.

Yours truly,

J. M. Stoddard
