Dear Madam,

Your favor of the 14th recd. I am pleased to know you made so good use of the circulars and trust they will produce results.

We send a copy of Prime to William Johnson as you request with bill to you. We have sold quite a number to the railroad men, not so many as we should have done had the book been in a plainer binding. I think that in a paper binding the book would do very nicely on the cars and would suggest that next year, not this year, we bring out an edition in paper covers for this purpose

Our sales to date are about 1000 copies

Yours truly
CASSELL PUBLISHING COMPANY.
