

NIXON & CO.,
62 DEY ST.

Cable Address—
NIXON, NEW YORK.
A. B. C. Code used 4th Edition.

P. O. Box 3248.

New York, June 23rd 1890

My dear Judge—

Yrs soth Ezekiel Fleming's address is Harrington, Del, and the name of the attorney here is, J. H. Caldwell 71 Broadway.
Fleming used to have quite extensive business interests in Del.
but failed about 1885— and the business is now carried on under the name of Mrs. E. Fleming, who is rated without any capital, and limited credit rating by "Dun & Co".
Fleming personally is probably worth nothing—
I know that these people have been bothering you, and while you probably don't know it I have done what I could to have them close their annoyance, by writing to Fleming as, good a letter as I knew how to do, and by an interview with the man Caldwell. Fleming is an ignorant old nut, and would not reply to me, and Caldwell is simply doing what Fleming says him to do. Together they make a tough pair to do anything with.

I cannot tell you Judge how sorry I am at the annoyance you have had as a result for your kindness to me and I only wish it was some way in my power to stop it.

I hear of you occasionally in the Tribune, or Mail & Ex. from some public act or utterance, and from what I see I hope you are as sound in body as you are in mind. Kate and myself both well. Love to the family

Yours truly,
Edmund