Dear Madam.

Your favor of the 20th
recd and we send a copy of Prime to The Freeman, Indianapolis, Ind. as you request.

We have never found advts
in this class of paper to be of any benefit although this,
of course, is rather special.
In this case, however, I think that the notice will be of more value than the advt.

Regarding the making up of a special edition in black cloth for the railroads. we will bind a few in this way and see if we get any additional sales from it.

I agree with you that the sale of 1000 copies is rather disappointing but the sale of cloth books during the last few years has been light in almost all cases.

Yours truly

CASSELL PUBLISHING COMPANY.
