

The Inter Ocean.

Chicago, July 3rd, 1890.

Mrs. A. W. Tourgee,
Mayville, N. Y.

Dear Mrs. Tourgee:--

I turned your letter of a few days since over to Mr. Nixon and as he wrote the Judge I supposed until to-day that he answered the question in regard to the Chautauqua letters. Before the receipt of your letter speaking of the plan of the young ladies arrangements had been made with the gentleman who has covered the Chautauqua Meetings for us, and Mr. Nixon says that he cannot consider any other proposition as to letters. I am sorry that this is the case but so it is.

My health I am glad to say has been pretty good for several weeks. I wrote a notice of "Pactolus Prime" for The Inter Ocean which I suppose the Judge saw. I answered his last letter and I understand that Mr. Nixon answered the letter received some weeks ago.

Very Sincerely,

W. W. Quisley
