Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir:

I am a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress in this, the Sixth, Congressional District of Pennsylvania. Several years ago I was the manager of a lecture course in this borough amongst other work I was then doing. A report is now being circulated by my political enemies in the county that during the management of this lecture course I engaged you to deliver a lecture in this place, that the contract price for the lecture was $100 and that I received this money from the sale of tickets and that I did not pay you the fee as above. Of course the story is false and a campaign slander but I take the liberty of writing to you for a denial as far as your name is concerned in the matter. If you will furnish me this as promptly as you can after you receive this letter I will be very grateful indeed.

Yours respectfully,

John B. Robinson
