My dear Mrs. Tourgee:-

I am just back from New York City, hence the delay in answering your letters. You need not fear the sheriff. They cannot arrest you without first giving you a chance to show cause why you should not be arrested. All they can do is to serve papers on you in the first instance, which will give you a chance to show that their proceedings amount to nothing.

As to the Skinner matter, I had made other arrangements for the present, so that I do not know whether I can now help you out by the first of August, or not. It is a pretty short call, and I have already had a good many since you last wrote me on the subject. However, I will see what I can do in the matter.

If you do not hear from me as soon as you wish, jog my memory by a line. Do not be afraid of worrying me.

Hastily, but sincerely, your friend,

To

Mrs. E. K. Tourgee,

Mayville, N. Y.
