

Wooster, Ohio, July 22, 1890.

My dear Judge,

About 1880 or '81 you put some money, although no very great sum - $100 or $150 perhaps - into an invention of mine which is still non-paying: partly for the reason of Patent Office litigation, which, however, my lawyers say, with a least apparent great confidence, will result favourably to my side. - I wish to make up to you, as far as I am able, the money you then invested in my affairs, and I enclose you a certificate for 100 shares in the Essex Typewriter Co. which will certainly bring it back to you. The ~~money paid to you~~ ^{invested by you} ~~money paid to you~~

It was to send you this certificate that I asked your address. ~~inquired of you~~ ^{when I met you} the other day, in "Leary's Old Book"

Store" in Philadelphia. — I was sincerely glad to see you, and I hope that you and yours are in health and prosperity.
I see your name in the papers more or less frequently, and I always read about you with interest. By the way, you said something when I saw you which a good deal excited my curiosity: it was, that in an interview you had with President Harrison something was said about me.

Perhaps I had better not ^{the facts,} know what it was, but if it would please me I should like to know ^{was said, if proper to repeat.} what ~~it was~~, I have a great regard for the memory of William Henry Harrison, who was a man of first-rate quality, whose history ought to be better known to the country. A good biography of him would be a valuable contribution to our literature. —

I wish that some one of your admirable style of composition ^{might} would make such a contribution.

I am spending a few days in this place, where I was "raised," visiting relatives. My permanent address is at Belleville, New Jersey, where I shall be at the beginning of next week, and where I shall be glad to receive your acknowledgment of the within certificate. The principal office of the Essex Company is in Newark, N.

J., 800 Broad St., rooms No. 103. Mr. Winser, the Secy, will be issued a certificate in lieu of this one, to any names that you may insert, of course.

And with cordial sincere best wishes, I am,

Yours most truly,

J. W. Schuckers

For Judge Jorjee.
