Hon. A. Tourjee,

Mayville, N. Y.

Dear Sir:-- At the Mohonk Negro Conference you reported the St. George's ADVOCATE published at Baltimore as a journal that published negro pictures without caricaturing them. I wrote to that address in Baltimore, had no answer. I called on the catholic book house of this city and was told that the publication was issued by a school for the negro colony in Pennsylvania and that their house in New York, Benziger Bros., 36-38 Barclay St., could secure me a sample copy. I wrote that firm which answers that they know nothing about such a journal. Will you be good enough to put me on track once more

Sincerely yours,

J. E. Roy
