Dear Cousin,

Yrs 2nd, asking for information about Maris Chambers, 1800 White St., Balto. duly recd and I at once sent to the Mer. Agency [Dun & Co.] and this is what they say: -

MRS. MARY CHAMBERS, Gen. Store, Cigars, Liqs. &c. Lutherville, Md.

*June 11th 1890. She has been conducting this business for the past 19 years. Is a widow lady of good character, doing a very fair business, gives it close attention, manages it in a cautious prudent way, said to own the property and considered worth including the investments in the business as some outside means fully 6,000$. Her purchases as a rule are small and she generally pays cash. "

Lutherville is a small station a few miles out from Baltimore on the Northern Central Ry.

You should receive this tomorrow, and if it is in time tell Lodie to ship the Bell &c., tomorrow if possible so that I can get it on Monday or Tuesday as I expect to go out of town next week to be away possibly for a couple of weeks, and would like to fix it before I go.

Business trip to Ohio & Ind.

Affty.
