

4932

J. Dewing Publishing Co.
Nos. 229-237 Canal Street, cor. Centre.

New-York, Sept. 12, 1890

My Dear Mrs. Tourcee:

I have been much disturbed lately in reading of the annoyances you have been subjected to — and greatly delighted at the evidences of your pluck contained in the same paragraphs — which were to be expected.

Sic semper tyrannis!

Finis coronat opus!

Floreat semper foemina, regina mundi!

= I received a note from Blair the other day, asking me to call at his office and "talk over old matters."

Of course I shall do no such thing; but he may look me up; so perhaps you had better give me any intimation you can as to what he is after, that I ~~can~~ may see to it he don't get it.

Give my best love to the Judge, and be sure of the same always from

Yours Faithfully

A. W. D. Howard