

J. Dewing Publishing Co.
Nos. 229-237 Canal Street, cor. Centre,

New-York, Sept. 25. 1890

Dear Mrs. Towhee:

I enclose Mr. Deming's letter in reply to my suggestion that he act for the Judge until Logan's return.

I suppose there is no chance of Blair's procuring an unfriendly appearance for the Continent; the probably as early a return of the papers for Deming to act on will be desirable.

You and the Judge will both appreciate that my answering his letter by writing to you is indicative of no lack of consideration for him — quite the reverse!

Yours Faithfully

H. W. D. Howard