

Oranville Sept 27th 1890

My Dear Judge Toujeu,
I cannot tell you how gratified it was to get your congratulatory letter and beautiful poem, accompanied with that beautiful paper which we can make the offering of his name, a part of his very self viz. a book - your book, "Vitalité", "Fuctolus Primi". I think you have honoured us and the occasion to a degree wholly beyond the merits of either. What could we have done more if we had been prince and princess, and the occasion the celebration of our royal nuptials? Nevertheless, though woefully fail to express our grateful sense of oblisations to you in our behalf, it is certainly safe to us to thank you.

Thank accept, them, our most grateful acknowledgments, and convey to Mr. Torgie and sister and "all that are in their house, our kindest regards. Very precious in my own memory will remain the seasons of my meeting with you and them in familiar intercourse.

Thanking you again and again for your most cordial good wishes to remain ever yours

Parcal & Emeline Kiddle
