My dear Judge:-

Your amended answer is received; also papers.

Thanks for your suggestions, which, as usual, are valuable. I will have them copied, verified and served. We may have to make a motion to compel them to accept these answers, and pay a little costs, but I think not. I think we have the right to serve them.

I am glad people are beginning to appreciate Your Highness. Assure your family of my good wishes, and my pleasant recollection of my recent entertainment by them.

Sincerely your friend,

Adelbert Moot.
