New York, Oct. 4th 1890
Dear Mrs. Bourgee;

Your favor received; I attended promptly to all the communications with reference to offering dates. The last one was not responded to and I missed former one entirely. There may be some misunderstanding with reference to Judge Bourgee's work. Mr. Fuller last Spring told me that we were not to have the Judge's business the present year and I assumed such to be the case. I also notice that the Judge has been advertised with other Bureaus, and that is why we have not made any great effort in his behalf. That applications of course that would come to us, we should turn over to you. We have published however an exclusive list, as well as a general list; the exclusive list contains only three people who are with us exclusively, as you will see from the pamphlet I send you. It is of course sorry to lose the name of Judge Dudgee from our list; if there is any misunderstanding about it will you please write us immediately that any correction may be made.

What shall we charge for Judge Dudgee in Ann Arbor, Mich. and what dates are available?

Yours truly,
H. L. Slayton
