

Wednesday Evening

Dear Mrs. Loring.

I would have been not a little puzzled to account for the name of Callahan
plant seen by our last mail, had we not discovered the name on one of the wrappers of our sister, and thus recalled your offer of sending us one. We are very much obliged to you, and I trust
I know we are remembered in true disappointment
not to see you again this summer. We have

occupied the "Bass House" this summer and entertained a family of fourteen. My own family of sisters all but one of the eight were here. Beside Susan and me. All have gone now and we are again snugly tucked in for the winter in the Cottage - though we have had some idea of "going outside" as people of this northern jurisdiction term an outing.

Our island is not now gorgeous in color and we dread to hear the wind blow.
Worship tomorrow it will rob the trees of their glory - We have enjoyed the mail for week through the summer. and we shall not feel well used unless it can be given us all the year round which we have asked for.

A "little news" of family news may interest
you. That Mr. Broadman's daughter Carrie Blount
had a son two months old. Sister B. expects to spend the winter with her in Chicago.

Please remember me
to <sup>Mr.</sup> husband and daughter in which Sister Helen joins and with kind regard to yourself I am very truly

Yours
Sister B. Carter
