My dear Judge,

Many thanks to you for your kind letter and for the information given to me in the same. I had not been able to find the article in the N.A. Review to which you referred me, but since the receipt of your letter I have made another search and succeeded in finding it. It has been of great service to me. But your letter cleared up many points which would otherwise have been obscure.

I do not possess a copy of the "invisible Empire" and have not been able to obtain one either in this city or in New York, which seems very strange to me. However I am still on the search for a copy and doubt not that I will obtain one eventually.

I have missed the recent issues of the Inter Ocean, excepting the very last, in which I note that you have issued a pamphlet "Is Liberty Worth Preserving?" I do not know the price, but if you will send me a copy I will gladly forward you the amount on its receipt.

Could I trouble you to loan me the copy of the speech delivered by Jackson, at Atlanta, which you loaned me to read at Christmas time? I will take what notes I desire and return it to you immediately. I did not suppose when I read it that I should want to read it at this time, at least.

Again thanking you for your kindness,

I am,

Respectfully Yours,

Judge Tourgee,
Mayville
N.Y.
