MOHONK LAKE, ULSTER CO., NEW YORK.

A. K. SMILEY,
PROPRIETOR.

Redlands N.Y.

Miss A. L. Tourgee.

Dear Madam.

I have received a letter from your mother asking me to write you if we can accommodate you at our house at Redlands.

I think your mother must be under the false impression (common everywhere) that I keep a hotel here in Redlands.

We have only a private house, but we should be glad to have a visit from you and show you the beauties of Redlands.

We also hope to have a visit from your father & mother when they arrive in California.

We have the pleasantest recollections of their visit at Lake Mohawk during the Conference on the Negro question

I hope you are having a pleasant sojourn in California.

Yours Truly
Albert K. Smiley.
