

Danvers Calo. 2-22-92

How Mr. Lougee
New York

My Dear Sir

There is perhaps
no where in the U.S., a place more peculiar,
and you know, in many of its surroundings,
than Danvers.

A letter of introduction or rather of Credence, from your ~~the~~ the of me to some one of your
of gentleman of influence here & character, & not far and near
of credit the the few any the the would ~~the~~ the

ask or accept that I am glad incidentally to say that I do not need it.
I would greatly like to see you. - Has to be Hoffmann or David not possible even possibly at all.

I want to increase
my property by a high level method of doing so I want to have a chance of better doing which I don't know I can maintain upon your end. - I have asked your aid in the last week. - paper, etc.
Believe me, I am
Yours always,
Augusta
