

A. BELFORD, PRESIDENT.
J. CLARKE, VICE-PRESIDENT.
GEO. B. HAMMOND, TREASURER.
C. HIGGINS, SUPERINTENDENT.
A. E. STINSON, SECRETARY.

BELFORD-CLARKE CO.

PUBLISHERS.

109 AND 111 WABASH AVENUE.

CHICAGO, March 10, 189 2

William Penn Nixon Esq,

"Inter Ocean," City.

Dear Mr. Nixon:-

We have sent the entire twenty-five thousand copies of "Is Liberty Worth Preserving" to Judge Tourgee, and inclose herein invoice for the same. You will notice that the invoice is more than the original estimate, as it was necessary (in order to make it presentable) to put on a cover and also to use better paper. The price charged is the exact cost, not allowing any thing for any one's time in connection with the work, excepting the compositor's, ^{Electrotypers.} lithographer's press man's and binder's.

Trusting it will be satisfactory, I remain,

Yours very truly,

