Allen W. Fougess, Esq.

Respected Sir:

Your last letter, circulars and papers all duly rec. Please accept thanks.

I am pleased that the Rude matter has incidentally brought me "in touch" with you. By the way, I rec. a letter from Mrs. Rude, New York, Friday, in relation to her husband—who promises me full particulars, in a series of letters, regarding his experiences in Florida—when he gets out of that politically infernal region. Whenever these articles appear, I will mail you marked copies—probably several weeks hence. Mr. Rude gives me the name of another Republican attorney who has just been disbarred there.

In connection with that part of your letter which will appear in The Republican this week, I shall re-print, in fine type, the Platform as appears on circular you enclosed; &c. And it occurs to me

That it might be a first-rate idea to enclose with this issue, to certain known thoroughbred Republican subscribers, one of those slips, "To all Lovers of Liberty and Justice." If you will send me 100 or 150 of those small blanks, by return mail, I will personally see that one is put in as many copies to such Republicans - in this country and to some distant places.

As to the proposed organization in this country. I will write you in a few days regarding that, after further consultation with my esteemed friend, Wm. Lerner, of this place - formerly of No. 1, 27th St. N.Y. We will make out a good list, and send it you, with stamps, &c.

I don't know to what extent your plan will practically materialize, but so far as my observation has gone, you have struck a most popular chord, and need assured I am most devotedly with you on this line - as would be my dear friend, Father A. N. Cole, were he on earth.

Truf.

L. G. Raymond
