

Riverside, Cal., March 15th. 1892

THE LORING

Officers

S. C. EVANS, PRESIDENT
W. A. HAYT, VICE-PRESIDENT
A. S. WHITE, TREASURER
F. A. MILLER, SECRETARY

Directors

C. M. LORING
S. C. EVANS
A. S. WHITE
B. SCHERMERHORN
T. E. LANGLEY
W. A. HAYT
F. A. MILLER

J. M. WOOD, ARCHITECT
THOS. G. MOSES, ARTIST

SEATING CAPACITY

Regular..... 1000
Great Gatherings..... 1200

STAGE MEASUREMENTS

	FEET
Height of Proscenium.....	40
Curtain Opening.....	28
Depth of Stage.....	36
Width from Wall to Wall.....	62.6
Height to Grooves.....	18
Height to Fly Gallery.....	22
Height to Gridiron.....	49
Width between Fly Galleries.....	40.6

THE SECOND BEST SHOW TOWN
IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA FOR
FIRST-CLASS ENTERTAINMENTS

The Loring

There is no finer theatre on the Pacific Coast. The stage is provided with all modern mechanical improvements, and all the conveniences connected with it are the best.

FRANK A. MILLER, Manager

Miss Annie Tourgée,

City.

Dear Madam:-

Your note of the 14th. received. In regard to the date April 4th. it is taken; also the 6th., 7th. and 8th. The week of April 10th. is all open excepting the 12th, and this is the first date that could be given your father at an advantage.

Kindly let me know at your earliest convenience, if he will take a date in this week.

Yours respectfully,

Frank A. Miller