Allien W. Turgue,

dear Sir:

Yours duly rec. Thanks. By this mail I send you one regular copy, in single wrapper, and a few half sheets, in another package.

I printed 100 extra copies of The Republican this week, and have handed them where, it is hoped, they may do the most good. A copy is mailed to every editor in Chautauque and Cattaraugus counties, to the "Crusader," New Orleans, the Chicago Inter-Ocean, leading congressmen—such as Henry Cabot Lodge, &c.

Just rec. letter from Ruel—will find next week, and send you copy.

I write this letter in haste, & catch morning mail, Truf. Raymond

I tried to give the rebels a "gut shot" this week!

P.S.—Sent copies to "Courier-Journal," "Atlanta Constitution," Charleston "News and Courier,"

Later, when Rude gets out of Florida, I intend to scatter copies loaded with traps,
all through that State.
The animals shall be skinned up!
