

EDITORIAL ROOMS,

The Jamestown Journal,

JOURNAL BUILDING.

(Dictated)

Jamestown, N. Y., March 21,

1892

Hon. A.W. Tourgee,
Mayville, N.Y.

Dear Judge:

I received your communication of March 17 and was very glad indeed to use the article for publication. A copy of The Journal containing the same was sent to you; it will also appear in the Weekly. Relative to the printing for your association, Mr. Hall has estimated the work and says that he will be able to print a thousand of the folders for $6.50, additional thousands at the rate of $1.50 per thousand.

I return to you the Bystander's Notes. I am sorry, but our space is so much filled at the present time that I would not be able to use anything so lengthy. I see the notes occasionally in the Inter-Ocean and have used portions of them from time to time, and personally am always interested in reading them.

When we can serve you in any way it is a pleasure to do so.

Yours with much respect,

Fred. W. Hyde