Chicago, March 22nd 1892

Hon Albion W. Burgle
Dear Sir

I take the pleasure of writing you on a matter of business, as a friend of your Cause. I am from the State of North Carolina, am now living in Chicago. I had the pleasure of attending a meeting on the evening of the 21st in this City advocating your Cause before a large body of my people, in company with Mr Robert M. Mitchell, now what I want is your cut to put in our paper which will be out next week after you have lectured to us in Chicago, on the evening of the 29th you can bring it with you, when you come for we will publish your Lecture in full. With your cut, will also give you a grand reception, I am an old soldier of the late war.

I am yours Truly
Col A. A. Jones
