Mrs. A. W. Tourgee,

Maysville, N. Y.

Dear Madam:-

Your courteous note is received.

We are sorry that a mistake was made in advising you relative to the return of the package, as we did not intend to prepay the express. Of course, it is not customary with us to pay the return charges on advertising articles submitted for approval, and we do not suppose you would have thought of it had we not mentioned it in our letter.

Yours very truly,

Wells & Richardson Co.
