Hon. Albion W. Tourgee.

Esteemed Sir:

Your last duly rec. Thanks. The enclosure is herewith returned, as requested.

Your propositions as to organization in this county, will be considered later.

The fact is, Republican politics in this county have been corrupted by money. There are two Rings, and a tooth-and-nail fight is on a good part of the time, over one thing or another.

Politicians, as of course you well know, have no use for any such organization as you are now incidentally connected with. I till such time as they may seek to use for their own aims.

Of course the masses of Republicans have patriotic impulses, but there is a sordid condition of things hereabouts, in political affairs.

None anon, Hardily, Raymond
