Hon. Allison W. Sargee.
Esteemed Sir.

Your last duly rec. Thanks.

There is not the least likelihood of the political "cusses" of this county, or kind, or of any other region where we are known, attempting to "bulldoze" us. On the contrary, all politicians who knew us are disposed to give us all the latitude and longitude we may want. We have the reputation of saying very bluntly just what we believe ought to be said.

Another letter was rec. from Rude D-day. The better get out of that region or he will be killed.

You will soon receive a list of names from here—of the right sort.

With hand beating with yours in patriotic impulses, we remain, ever at your service—

Truly,

L. G. Raymond
