

Mrs. G. B. Thompson.

4¹/₁₀ 1892

661 Lombard St.

Chicago Ills.

Judge W. George.
Nayville N. Y.

Dear Sir,

It appears to me like presumption, yet I have been urged to write to you.

That you are a public benefactor and kind to the oppressed, does not quite justify my plea for addressing you.

It is only the fact, that there is no man, so thoroughly understands the condition of the "free shoe" of the South, as Judge George.

I have a manuscript, "The Home of the South" on this subject. I would like your opinion concerning its merit. ¹³ Because your opinion would be of so much value to me

Your recommendation would ensure its success.

Could you look it over?
I am willing to pay for one received.

I think my father, Mr B. D. Bailey told me he was No 46 on your list of signers "National Rights Association"

God bless you in your endeavor
for ameliorating the condition of the Negro. I hope you are His chosen instrument for completing the work begun by the war.

How blind the North is, in regard to this subject. And how dead to her duty the church are. Yet if they can be made to see what needs to be done, the men and money are ready.

Most Anxiously — G. B. Thompson
