Judge A. W. Tourgee,

My Dear Sir,

Your note came to hand, and in reply will say that, I am sorry that being compelled to be out of the city to meet General Conference at Philadelphia April 29 to May 25th will make it impossible for me to arrange for a paying lecture on the date named. I shall be obliged to defer the matter for the present.

I am very gratefully yours
J. T. Jenifer.
