TREASURER,
MRS. ANNA E. GRUBB,

JUNIOR VICE,
MRS. NETTIE S. CHAPIN,
MARSHALLTOWN, IOWA.

NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS
OF THE
LADIES OF THE GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC.

MARSHALLTOWN, IOWA, May 9 1892.

Hon Albion W Sargee,

Dear Sir,

For the past two campaigns the women of this country to obtain their enfranchisement have headed their ensigns and standards, "Equal Rights". As chairman of the National Committee I had called a Convention in Chicago for May 26. Will you tell me at what time your Convention is held?

There should be a large delegation of women to hold up your hands. Millions of dollars have been spent by women to ameliorate the condition of the heathen, but is there a good conference or convocation, who can say a word for the Afro American heathens of the South. Their condition is infinitely worse than "before the war".

Every patriotic citizen - every true woman ought to join hands with your party in demanding of the general government protection to every citizen of the South.

Truly Yours, Nettie S. Chapin.
