

6232

2011 Vermont Ave.,

Washington, D. C., May 12, 1892.

Hon. Albion W. Tourgee, Mayville,
N. Y.

Dear Sir:

Everything is in readiness for your lecture here on Tuesday evening next, and we expect to greet you with a full house.

I received your letter written from Chicago, and would have replied to it immediately, but having completed the arrangements with the Redpath Lyceum Bureau, and thinking that you were en-route to your home in Mayville, N. Y., I deferred my reply till now in order to send a formal letter to you asking you to lecture on the 17th instant.

please inform me as to the time you expect^{to} reach this city, and where you expect to stop, as Senator Bruce and I shall call for you on the evening of the lecture.

Very truly yours,

Jesse Rawson