My Dear Judge:

I received your kind letter from San Francisco in due time, but did not know where a letter west would reach you.

I am much obliged for the kind expressions about myself, and am sure I thank the writer of the "Peter-Ocean" letter; but there is as much probability of Cleveland & Will ~~Waring~~ <sup>Waring</sup> on the same ticket as of my being seriously considered by any body of men.

You know my sentiment on the subject of office-holding, viz: that it would be excusable in me only should there be sufficient public demand to make it a duty; or if I could not make a living in any other way.

Yours with regards
