Judge Albion Tourgee,

My Dear Sir:-

I am very sorry that there should be a mis-understanding between us and want to see if I cannot dis-entangle the matter. To do so I am going to enclose your last letter so that you will see how it was that I did not wire you when you really intended that I should. I am not crowding this matter in order to worry you, but I am very anxious to have you know that no dis-courtesy on my part was intended. Now I hope to receive a good strong article from you by the 10th of June, to be used in my July number and trust that it will be so much the better for being delayed.

I remain,

Very truly yours,

Judge Albion Tourgee,
Mayville,
N.Y.
