My Dear Sir:-

I guess we are all right again now and will start out on a clean fresh page. The pages of the Republican Magazine contain about four hundred words, and I should like to have you fill from five to ten pages, according to your inclination.

Although we have gone to press with two forms, it will be Friday or Saturday before we shall emerge from the binders hands, when I will immediately send you one or two copies.

I hope the Magazine will please you, and that in turn you will find time to give us something first class.

Very truly yours,

Judge A.W. Tourgee,
Mayville,
N.Y.
