

Phila. Pa.

May 27. 1892.

Dear Mrs. Linger:

You of 11 inst rec'd and I have sent 8 yds of material which I thought most durable and in better taste than the novelties which I enclose samples of. I bought a 125-craw cloth for 1.00 per yd.
and 2 yds benzaline to match for trimming @ 1.50 per yd. and had them sent to the address you gave. The amount you sent was $15.00 the goods were $11.00 shall I send the balance to you as your sister? Thanking you for the confidence you place in my judgement and hoping the goods may suit, I am with kindest regards

Yours very resp<sup>ly</sup>

Elizabeth K. Boyd.

P.S. I thought the goods subject to exchange should they not be satisfactory. I find Manawaki and Dartington goods are about the same price and grade and these are the various pieces quoted. I refer to the enclosed samples.
