

Minneapolis Minn

May 29/92

Mr A. W. Tourjee
Mayville N. Y.

Dear Sir—

We understand you intend to visit Minneapolis during the Convention. We extend you hearty welcome and will feel honored if you will accept the hospitality and privileges of the Headquarters of "The Afro American Citizens Assn. While in our City.

If you have any arrangements, not yet complete, we hope you will not fail to let us be of service to you.

Very truly yours

Office American Citizens Union

Jas. J. Neuf
Corresponding Sec.

New York Life Bldg.

Minneapolis
Minn.

THE AFRO-AMERICANS.

Reception Will Be Tendered One Evening of Convention Week.

The Afro-American headquarters, over 215 Hennepin avenue, will open on the evening of June 4, as a general information bureau and rendezvous for the colored delegates and visitors. The "National Capital News Syndicate" will also locate there during the convention. The newspapers, writing room and all conveniences will be at the disposal of delegates and visitors and every effort made to make their stay in the city a pleasant one. One evening during the week of the convention, a reception will be tendered the colored visitors, when flowers, music and speeches will abound.

The officers of the Afro-American association are as follows: Jasper Gibbs, president; B. C. Yancy and R. T. Gray, vice presidents; A. G. Plummer, secretary; J. V. Kemp, corresponding secretary; T. A. Jackson, treasurer; W. E. Brown, William R. Morris, J. V. Healy, J. L. Neal and C. O. Turner, executive committee. There will be a reception committee to meet each train on arrival and to direct each visitor to the headquarters. In fact the most perfect arrangements are being made for the comfort of the visitors.