June 10th 1892.

Judge Albion W. Bourgee.
Chicago, Ills.

Dear Sir:-

I see by the Pioneer Press that you are to make an address at St. Paul next Sunday, June 5th. I write to ask if you could be secured for a lecture at Nastings - 20 miles out of St. Paul near that time.

As to date, the Republican Convention, a S. S. Institute, and High School Commencement all come next week. I do not know of any thing that would hinder an appointment for Monday evening, June 6th. That, however, is the only night open in the week.

As to the place, I should want you to speak in the Presbyterian Church, of which I am pastor. It are on the Milwaukee Road, and can be reached by evening train from the Twin Cities, and you can return that night, should you prefer it.

I do not know of any suitable date, after June 6th, until Friday June 17th. I desire answers to the following questions, in case you can come to us now, or later.

1. Date.
2. Subject of lecture.
3. Your price for lecture.
4. Whether or not you are furnished with any "ad"-posters, tickets &c which you could supply.

I had the great pleasure of hearing
you at Wooster Ohio when I was a student there, and read your contributions to the Inter Ocean with great interest, when I see the paper. Sincerely yours -

R. M. Donaldson
