EDWARD T. HOWARD,

ROOM 76, TRIBUNE BUILDING,

New York, June 1st 1892

Ms. Emma K. Fugate

Dear Madame

If you will send on a few of your daughters sketches and put a reasonable price on same, letting me know how many there are altogether I will submit them for you to a few of the large advertisers and try and dispose of them to your advantage.
I am still pugging away at "Advertising" and by persistent hard work making a success of it. With kind regards to yourself and the Judge I am as ever

Yours truly
Edward T. Howard
