NEW YORK, June 1, 1892.

Dictated Judge A. W. Tougee,

Mayville, N.Y.

My Dear Judge:

At the late General Conference I had the honor of writing a report relating to the outrages in the south, which report was passed by the Conference by a rising vote which was almost unanimous. In a speech which I made on the occasion I quoted as I supposed a statement made and published by you in an article or book entitled "Is Liberty Worth Preserving?" relating to the number of outrages which you had noted during the year 1891. I got the statement from the Rev. C. H. Grandison. I could not find the production, but took it down verbatim as he gave it to me. I supposed it had been published in pamphlet form; I cannot find it in New York. Can you tell me where I can get the work or article, whichever it is. If it is in book form if you will kindly forward it to me I will send you the money in payment of the same. You will find the report and the speech I made in the Daily Christian Advocate of May 17th. Awaiting your reply, with sentiments of esteem, I am,

Sincerely yours,

My Dear Sir

At the late General Conference I had the honor of writing a report relating to the outrages in the south, which report was passed by the Conference by a rising vote which was almost unanimous. In a speech which I made on the occasion I quoted as I supposed a statement made and published by you in an article or book entitled "The Liberty Worth Preserving" relating to the number of outrages which you had noted during the year 1851.

I got the statement from the Rev. G. M. Garrison. I could not find the quotation, but took it down verbatim as he gave it to me. I supposed it had been published in pamphlet form. I cannot find it in New York. Can you tell me where I can get the work or article, whichever it is. If it is a book I will buy it for you kindly forward it to me I will send you the money in payment of the same. You will find the report and the speech I made in the

Daily Christian Advocate of New York. Awaiting your reply, with sentiments of esteem,

Sincerely yours,
Wm. L. Chapin
