Dear Sir:-

In regard to the great interest you take in the Negro race, we the managers of "Current Thought" feel that your portrait on our frontispiece would be greatly appreciated by our people notwithstanding our own personal interest. I mail you a copy of the above named journal which can better speak for itself.

Should you kindly favour us with your photo and a few of the facts regarding yourself so as to able us to give a short pen sketch of your life, we would feel greatly indebted to you in our own behalf as it would enhance the value of our little journal, still not for a moment forgetting how much we owe you as a Negro for what you are doing for the race. We are young men, attempting to present to the public a journal that will interest both white and black. Our journal is like ourselves as yet; very young, and as we grow older we hope to improve it.

Allow me to add my homage and undisguised admiration, with which I remain

Yours Obediently in the Cause
