FRANKLIN FYLES, 1285 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

June 10, 1892.

Mr. Albion W. Tourgee--

Dear Sir: As I anticipated, "Poor Joel Pike" did not earn any more on account of his double length. The gross receipts are $161, out of which we deduct one-third, $53.67, leaving $107.33 for you. Again deducting the original payment of $75, the balance is $32.33, for which I enclose a check.

Yours truly,

Franklin Fyles
